

A group of people in formal attire are seen from behind, standing on a boat at night. They are holding glasses of champagne. The boat has a white canopy with warm string lights. In the background, a city skyline is visible across a body of water, with several tall buildings illuminated at night. The overall atmosphere is elegant and festive.

BANGKOK BACHELOR PARTY

The Hangover Pack

Four days in Bangkok, run the way the good ones run. What is possible, what it costs, and what to lock first.

Four days, and none of them wasted

THURSDAY

Land, shower, rooftop at seven. Long table for sixteen at nine.

FRIDAY

The river at five, three hours of it. Off the boat straight into a table above the floor.

SATURDAY

A pool party in the afternoon, a private room at midnight, a villa with the gate shut after that.

SUNDAY

Recover, or take the extension: two hours down the coast and do it again by the sea.

The river, at five in the afternoon

Three hours on a private teak cruiser, past Wat Arun and under the lit bridge, with your own bar and your own music.

Board at Sathorn, and the city that took an hour to cross by van slides past in silence. Bigger version: a yacht for a full day, swim stop included.

Chao Phraya charter, 3 hours, up to 16: from ฿48,000

Extra hour ฿12,000 · catering ฿1,800 a man
Yacht, 8 hours: from ฿49,000

The rooftop, before anyone is drunk

Reserved sofas above Sathorn at seven, skyline on three sides, and the group photograph that ends up in the wedding slideshow.

Cheapest hour of the trip and the one that sets the tone. Dress code is real: no shorts, no flip-flops. We tell you which rooftops actually let sixteen men in together.

Whole terrace to yourselves, with your own DJ:
from ฿35,000

The pool party, the one everybody photographs

A private pool with its own stage and cabanas, room for a hundred and fifty, and a DJ who takes requests.

Swimwear, ice by the crate, food arriving without being asked. It runs in the afternoon or it runs at two in the morning — Bangkok is one of the few cities where both are possible.

Pool zone, up to 150 guests: from ฿15,000

Party-allowed villa with its own pool: from ฿18,500 a night

A table, above the floor, with your name on it

Bottles in ice, mixers arriving without being asked, and a sofa the group does not have to fight for at midnight.

A table is the difference between a night and a queue. Sparklers when the groom's bottle lands, and one tab at the end instead of sixteen arguments. Any unfinished bottle is kept for you for twelve months.

Table package from ฿10,500 · bottle from ฿6,000

Liquor package ฿20,000, around 30% cheaper
Minimum spend from ฿3,000 a head

The private room, where it always ends

Your own room with a door, fifty thousand songs, a pool table in the bigger ones, and nobody watching.

Small rooms take four. The party rooms take thirty men and come with a private DJ. We recommend PIMP for it — sixteen private rooms, three live bands, the pool zone — and we book it as your organiser, not as the venue.

Small VIP room from ฿3,500 · party room for 30 from ฿10,000

PIMP packages: 50-CENTS ฿71,500 · HEFNER ฿107,000

PIMP DADDY ฿232,000 · PARTY pool ฿112,000

The after-party, behind a gate that shuts

Everyone leaves the club at four and the party keeps going at a house twenty minutes out of town.

A private pool, a sound system, a bartender, and neighbours far enough away that nobody knocks. The morning after is part of the point: the group wakes up in the same house and gets back in the same pool.

Party-allowed villa: from ฿18,500 a night
Refundable deposit ฿20,000 · extra person
from ฿1,500
Host ฿4,800 for 4 hours · ฿7,800 for 8

The extension, for groups who want the full version

Party bus down the coast with the sound on, sunset cruise out of the marina, a beachfront pool villa to collapse in.

Two hours each way, and it changes the shape of the whole trip: two cities, one group, nobody driving. Go Saturday, come back Sunday afternoon, fly out Monday.

Beachfront pool villa: from ฿12,500 a night

Yacht, 8 hours: from ฿49,000

Van, 10-hour day ฿6,500 · transfer ฿1,200

Questions worth asking any organiser

- Is the price per group or per person, and is VAT in it?
- Who owns the venue relationship — you, or an agent you have never met?
- What happens if four men drop out ten days before?
- Can I pay a company, on an invoice, by card?
- Who is standing at the door when we arrive, and what is his phone number?
- What is not included that we will be asked to pay on the night?
- Is the villa actually allowed to hold a party, in writing?
- If the boat cannot sail, what is the replacement?
- Do unfinished bottles carry over, or are they poured away?
- Who settles the bill at three in the morning, and in front of whom?

How not to ruin it for your own group

- Ask the groom what he does not want. One question, before anything is booked. It saves the whole trip.
- Two fixed things a day, no more. Every extra booking becomes an argument in a lobby.
- One payer, one tab. Split it on the flight home, never at the table.
- Say the price a head once, in writing, before anyone pays a deposit.
- Bangkok traffic is not a rumour. Boat at five means leaving the hotel at four.
- Keep one man sober each night, and he holds the groom's passport.
- Book the villa before the flights. There are few party-allowed ones and they go first.

What to lock, and when

- Three months out — the villa and the boat.
- Six weeks out — the private room and the table.
- Three weeks out — hotel rooms as one block, same floor.
- One week out — vans, hosts, fast track, running order to every phone.
- Forty-eight hours out — headcount. Tell us two days ahead and we resize the room, boat or villa at no extra cost.
- On the day — one payer, one tab, one host who has your number.

Tell us the dates and the headcount and we send a quote the same day.
